Society for Library Professionals (SLP)

The Society for Library Professionals (SLP) was founded in the year 2008 under the Societies Registration Act 1860. The role of this Society is to achieve high standard in the field of librarianship. This will be achieved by the development of strong linkages among libraries and information centres across the globe; advancement of library and information science profession in India by fostering collaboration with national and international agencies; and also by promoting educational exchange programmes with global partners. For further details visit http://www.slp.org.in

Special Libraries Association (SLA), USA

The Special Libraries Association (SLA) with it's headquarter in USA, is a non-profit global organization for information professionals and their strategic partners. The SLA was established in the year 1909; it is more than hundred year old organization. It is reckoned as one of the largest professional non-profit association across Globe with 9,000 members in 83 countries. The wide range of professional activities undertaken by this association can be gauged by the fact that it has 75 communities. For further details visit http://www.sla.org

SLA Asia Community

The Asian chapter of SLA is one of the fastest growing chapters with members from Asian and western countries. It has more than 150 members from India, Indonesia, Laos, Macau, Malaysia, Myanmar, Mongolia, Nepal, Pakistan, Philippines, Singapore, South Korea, Sri Lanka, Taiwan, Thailand, Vietnam, Australia, UK, and USA. For details Please visit http://asia.sla.org

Institute of Economic Growth (IEG)

The Institute of Economic Growth (IEG) is an autonomous, multidisciplinary centre for advanced research and training. Widely recognized as a Centre of Excellence, it is one of India's leading academic institutions in the field of economic and social development. Established in 1958, the centre has a faculty strength of 30 social scientists. The Institute organizes regular training programmes for the officers of the Indian Economic Service and occasional courses for officers of the Indian Statistical Service, NABARD, and teachers from universities. The Institute's faculty members also supervise doctoral research of university students from India and abroad, provide regular policy inputs, and engage with government, civil society and international organisations. Society. Institute. For more details about IEG visit http://www.iegindia.org

Ambedkar University Delhi (AUD)

The Dr. B. R. Ambedkar University Delhi (Ambedkar University Delhi or AUD) is a public University with a multi campus, unitary structure with research, postgraduate and undergraduate programmes in the social sciences and the humanities. The Ambedkar University Delhi was established by the Government of the National Capital Territory of Delhi through an Act of Legislature in 2007 and was later notified in July 2008. Mandated to focus on research and teaching in the social sciences and humanities and guided by Dr Ambedkar's vision of bridging equality and social justice with excellence, AUD considers it to be its mission to create sustainable and effective linkages between access to and success in higher education. AUD is committed to creating an institutional culture characterized by humanism, non-hierarchical and collegial environment, teamwork and nurturance of creativity. AUD has a rich and rapidly growing library serving the students and teachers at three campuses, with a fast-growing subscription base of e-journals and resources. The library is online - can be accessed on and off campus. For more details, click on www.aud.ac.in

Conference Objectives

The broad theme of the conference is 'Resilience, Reflection and innovation in Library Services and Practices' and it will be held in Hybrid Mode: Face to face and online. No doubt the libraries are changing at a fast pace primarily due to advancement in ICT. We are practically in an era of Internet driven librarianship. People are now turning to their mobile devices serviced by commercial firms to meet their needs of knowledge and information. On the other hand the community of library and information science professionals are duty bound. They have to ensure 'sustained, free and equitable access to knowledge and preservation of our cultural and scientific heritage'.

The principal objective of this international event is to provide a forum for exchange of knowledge and skills relevant to Information Professionals in Asia with a global perspective. The conference will also offer opportunity to put forward innovative plans, debate classic as well as new ideas, and promote closer cooperation among participants from diverse background. It will solicit high quality research papers and provide an international forum for researchers, developers and practitioners to present applied and theoretical research findings.

Some of the major objectives are to:

- Ensure that information professionals are acquainted with the latest developments in the library and information world.
- Library services in post COVID era
- Bring together the dispersed community of library professionals to share their experiences through a common platform.
- Assist libraries and library professionals in implementing their development plans.
- Learn innovative library tools and technologies used to create and deliver better library support services.
- Strengthen academic collaboration and strategic alliances for the development of special libraries
